GUIDELINES FOR PANCHAYAT LIBRARY & INFOTAINMENT CENTRE

1. INTRODUCTION:

The state of Odisha endowed with its rich cultural heritage, and serene natural beauty has been a veritable paradise for visitors across the globe. The State is economically vibrant with inexhaustible natural resources. Significant decline in poverty and enhancement in quality of life over the years has made the State as the land of myriad possibilities.

Despite intervention of Government in reduction of poverty, still there is a gap in awareness among the people on the programme objectives of different poverty alleviation and development programmes. Due to ignorance in the rural areas more particularly in the PESA / KBK Districts having preponderance of tribal population, vulnerable groups like women, physically challenged and other marginal sections, it is expedient to assimilate those marginal sections of the society & PRI members into the mainstream of the society. In order to address the issue, it has become imperative to develop an intellectual fervour at Gram Panchayat level with an objective of “Empowerment, Enlightenment and Entertainment” to percolate the message of development in the lower crust of the community.

In the present backdrop of information explosion throughout the world, common people cannot keep pace with the multi-faceted information needs of everyday life without the aid of panchayat public library. Public library is no longer merely a recreational centre, it is converted into a Community Information and Education Centre with modern electronic and audio-visual materials, internet services, etc. As a poor man’s university serving the every-day demand of the people, Panchayat Library can play the role of a catalyst bringing tremendous social and economic changes in the rural society. It will reduce the intellectual divide by providing access to books, information and internet facilities to rural youths of each district and above all disseminate information on all kinds of welfare schemes, agriculture, rural marketing etc. Since information has become national resource, information-based society will increase the quality of life of the rural people to a large extent.
There is a necessity for training & learning facilities at village level for the PRI members, grass root functionaries, farmers, women, as well as the youth to motivate them to avail the benefit of Govt. schemes.

In order to widen the IEC activities as well as training for the target group in a convenient and economic mode, digital dissemination can be considered as the suitable solution where same quality of content can be availed anytime & anywhere across the state.

Various audio visual training & learning modules in a ‘Do-How’ mode will certainly arouse considerable interest among the target group. An efficient and meaningful Information, Communication & Technology (ICT) system providing accurate, timely, relevant information and services to the rural people of Odisha on Panchayati Raj & Drinking Water, Livelihood, Skill development, Agriculture & allied activities will empower them for more remunerative livelihood and better future.

Therefore, it has been decided to develop a Panchayat Library-cum-Infotainment Centre in each GP to cater to the need of the people of rural area to develop a society with cultural vitality & ethos.

2. OBJECTIVES: -

a) Library

Panchayat Libraries have played a significant role in the preservation and advancement of culture, self-education and the reading for leisure. Panchayat Public library is an institution where there is no discrimination of the users irrespective of sex, caste, religion, age, income etc.

The concept of Panchayat Library is a phenomenon of 20th century especially in India. Panchayat Library as a centre of social, educational and cultural hub for the local community need to be strengthened to facilitate best services to the general public of the community.

b) Infotainment Centre:

Infotainment Centre will maintain Digital Repositories of structured e-learning videos in simple communicative regional language to motivate rural people particularly PRI members, women & youth to achieve the 4R objective (Right Activity - Right Way- Right Place - Right Time)

Besides specific day & time for common learning on different activities, the people can be facilitated with the contents of their choice anytime convenient to them and the Hub.
3. SCOPE OF PANCHAYAT LIBRARY & INFOTAINMENT CENTRE IN THE PRESENT BACKDROP:

a) A Panchayat Library in rural area has an important role to play in the national programme of social reconstruction and national building. Panchayat libraries can contribute in sustaining the quality of life of the rural people in all aspects such as educational, economic, industrial, scientific and cultural etc. and can promote the concept of a democratic society. The importance of a Panchayat Library can be established by the fact that a large proportion of families living in the villages cannot provide their members with books and other materials for reading purpose. The Panchayat public libraries will function as an epitome of socio-cultural, political and educational development for both individual and society.

b) Through library, one’s social contact, creative capacity, influence in the community, leadership quality etc. can be developed which in turn helps of socio-cultural development of the individuals. It helps in modification of old habits, beliefs, attitudes values and cultivation of new ideas.

c) The mass media like radio and Television imparts information in education, political and socio-economic matters will help in changing social structure, customs, traditions and value of rural people and plays a vital role in shaping the behavior of the members of the society.

d) To provide platform for rural youths to get better access of career oriented information.

e) To organize educative and informative film shows, which will play an important role in educating the rural masses besides entertainment to the people.

f) To organize lecture in various useful topic bonfire for the rural people from time to time, which help to acquire on various subject matters.

g) To provide resources for people’s entertainment as a recreation centre.

h) The Infotainment Centre will ensure:
   - Cost effective 24x7 training & learning for PRI members, farmers, women & youth.
   - Dissemination of vital information on Govt. schemes & activities.
   - Outreach for more people minimizing barriers in communication.
   - Development of user friendly training and capacity building modules.
   - Implementation of mass awareness and orientation programmes.
   - Optimal use of IEC materials already developed by various agencies.
   - Create access to market information and support services.
• Create income opportunities for rural entrepreneurs / SHGs.

i) Infotainment centre can also be used for training & capacity building of Farmers/ Extension workers/ Volunteers through multimedia training modules in which their learning can also be assessed & certified.

j) Screening of local and relevant contents will create interest as well as positive attitude amongst the viewers. Thus the centre will attract the target group for training & learning, skill development for livelihood activities etc. This will also emerge as an effective platform for dissemination of IEC contents related to different schemes and programmes of the Govt.
